Pre-Marital Counseling

Marriage is one of the greatest, most life altering, decisions any two people can make. People tend to talk about how beautiful and exciting weddings can be (and they are!), but they are also celebrations that proclaim a serious commitment. For this reason, it is highly recommend that some consulting is done before getting married. Pre-marital counseling is a great source of consultation, guidance, and help in order to start off your marriage in the right direction. Free pre-marital counseling is provided by Pastor Aaron Kelso.

Please fill out and send this document to Pastor Aaron via email at aaron@restorechristianchurch.org.

We are excited to hear from you and look forward to helping you celebrate and enjoy one of God's greatest gifts!
